

Manual Image Review

Seamlessly Outsource Image Review to a Virtual Team of Tolling Professionals

Manual Image Review services from Global Agility fuse proven expertise with global flexibility. Averaging 18 months experience in the toll space, our team of on and offshore professionals are well-versed in a variety of regions, regulations and plate syntax norms for next-level processing accuracy and efficiency. Combined with hybrid cloud technology for easy integration, manual image review from Global Agility creates a flexible outsource model built to streamline operations and evolve with your business needs.

Elevate Your Image Review With:

- Custom onshore, offshore or hybrid outsourcing
- Hybrid cloud services for boundless integration
- 24/7 global support
- Global workforce averaging 18+ months tolling experience
- Sophisticated tracking dashboards
- Accelerated ramp and turnaround time

Minimize Leakage and Code-Offs

Reclaim lost revenue by delegating your image review needs to a cost-effective and specialized extension of your team trained to elevate accuracy and streamline daily operations.

Design a Custom Outsource Model

Gain flexibility by leveraging onshore, offshore or hybrid teams that can quickly adapt to your unique business requirements and geographic restraints.

Eliminate the Risk of Downtime

Achieve geographic redundancy with global teams of highly trained professionals that can seamlessly reroute workloads for continuous production and minimal downtime.

Audit Operations On-Demand

Ensure quality control and maximum KPI achievement with sophisticated dashboards that give you the power to conduct on-demand audits and gain insight into individual agent and site performance.

Integrate Quickly and Scale With Ease

Eliminate the need for pricey and slow integrations with our proprietary Global Image Review Software (GIRS). GIRS empowers cloud-based integration with your existing OCR or ALPR system so you can create a truly customized outsource solution without the added equipment, costs or hassle. Once up and running, the flexibility of the hybrid cloud allows our scalable workforce to setup shop virtually anywhere and accelerate ramp time, giving you the freedom to adapt to changing business needs with ease.
